

ELEC 1210
National Electric
Code Interpretations

Full Name _____ SSN _____

Home Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

High School _____ Counselor _____

Graduation Date _____ Date of Birth _____

Dual Credit is a planned process for advanced placement at Northeast State Technical Community College for technical skills mastered while in high school. Performance-based objectives are used to measure competency of skills.

Please check one of the following:

Articulation

Dual Credit

Dual Enrollment

Instructions:

For Students:

To receive credit for ELEC 1210 – National Electric Code Interp. – you must:

1. Fill out Pathway form completely.
2. Be approved by high school instructor and NSTCC instructor.
3. Pass the NSTCC course exam for ELEC 1210 with a score of 70% or better.

High School Instructors:

1. The Articulation/Dual Credit exam is to be given by NSTCC faculty.
2. Send student's completed Pathway form to: Gary Lee, Director, High School Transition Programs, Northeast State Technical Community College, P.O. Box 246 * 2425 Highway 75, Blountville, TN 37617- 0246.

For additional information, call 423-354-2505.

Northeast State Authorization

A.

- Pathway Form is complete.
- Student has successfully passed the articulation exam.

B.

Director, High School
Transition Programs

Date